MAR 13'28

Washington, D. C.

Register of Copyrights,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I herewith respectfully request the return of the following named motion picture films deposited by me for registration of copyright in the name of
Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation

Wired and Fired - 1 reel

Respecfully,

FULTON BRYLAWSKI.

The Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation
hereby acknowledge the receipt of two copies each of the motion picture films deposited and registered in the Copyright Office as follows:

Title	Date of Deposit	Registration
Wired and Fired	3-13-28	©c1M 4815

The return of the above copies was requested by the said Company, by its agent and attorney on the 13th day of Mar.1928 and the said Fulton Brylawski for himself, and as the duly authorized agent and attorney of the said Company, hereby acknowledges the delivery to him of said copies, and the receipt thereof.

Fulton Brylawski

MAR 15 1928

Peta 2 2/ Mar. 15

MAR 13'28

©clM 4815

WIRED AND FIRED

Motion picture in one reel

By Ben Harrison and Manny Gould

From George Herriman's Cartoons

Author of the motion picture (under section 62)
Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation of U.S.

MAR 13'28

©clM 4815

WIRED AND FIRED (Krazy Kat cartoon)

Krazy Kat is frying wheat cakes on a little stove. He flips the wheat cake into the air and it stays there. He beckons to the wheat cake to come down but it refuses. He makes a gun out of his frying pan, shoots the wheat cake, and as it gets ready to fall, the stove opens its mouth and devours it. Krazy is angry at this action of the stove and demands his wheat cake back. The stove, however, demands more food.

Krazy gets a brilliant idea. He picks up a can of gasoline and pours it into the stove. He then strikes a match to it and the stove turns into a flame. The flame chases him and he picks up a seltzer bottle to put the flame out. The flame swallows all of the water and squirts it back at Krazy Kat. Krazy Kat is panic stricken. He rushes to the phone and calls for the fire department but he cannot get his number. We show the operator busily engaged reading a book and chewing gum. The flame is becoming more menacing, the operator is becoming less active. Krazy in desperation at his inability to get the operator finally mumps into the phone and crawls inside the wires.

He comes into a scene where birds are on the wires. One bird is playing the harp, several others are dancing to his tunes. He is attacked by the birds but he emerges victorious. He finally reaches the fire station and calls the fire department. They are on their way to the fire. Krazy Kat is driving the engine with a slow moving horse who is also hard of hearing. After much trouble with the horse he comes to his home, chops down the door, and the inside of the house is completely burned to the ground. Just then the phone rings and the operator says, "Were you calling the fire department? Here is your party." Krazy falls back on a flame which blazes up and burns him on the end.

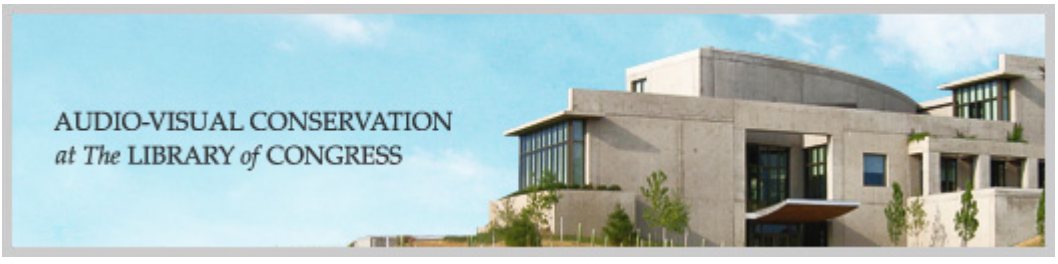
This document is from the Library of Congress
"Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, 1912-1977"

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:
https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004

Class M Finding Aid:
https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002



National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress